WSU uses a +/- grading scale for final grades and to calculate grade point averages. A tentative grading scheme is presented in the following table. Note that this grading scheme may change based on the performance of the class.

Likethergate, 'T' is given at the discretion of the course instructor. I will give an incomplete ('T') grade only if you have been making satisfactory progress in a course except for work that could not be completed due to circumstances beyond your control (such as illness, serious accident, death in family, natural disaster, etc). You will be asked to produce evidence. If incomplete works due to these extraordinary events take place before the last date to withdraw and cannot be completed before the end of the semester, then you should withdraw from the course. I will not give 'T' for you to leave early for the semester break. An incomplete for a course must be removed by the end of the next semester or the 'T' will change to 'F'.

Success in this 3-hour credit course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 45 hours over the length of the course (normally 3 hours per week with 1 of the hours used for lecture) for instruction and preparation/ studying or course-related activities for a total of 135 hours.

According to the US Department of Education, "credit hour" is a measure of graduate or undergraduate academic work represented in intended learning outcomes and verified by evidence of student achievement that reasonably approximates not less than one hour of class contact per faculty instruction and a minimum of two hours of out-of-class student work for each week of instructional time for approximately 15 weeks for a semester; or an equivalent amount of work over a different amount of time. As an example, for a three-credit hour course, this translates to 135 hours of student work.

Students from all diverse backgrounds and perspectives are welcome in this Course and the diversity that students bring to this course should be viewed as a resource, strength and benefit. All materials and activities are presented with the intent to be respectful of diversity: gender, sexuality, disability, age, socioeconomic status, ethnicity, race, and culture. Your suggestions are encouraged and appreciated. Please let me know ways to improve the effectiveness of the course for you personally or for other students or student groups. In addition, if any of our class meetings conflict with your religious events, please let me know so that we can make arrangements for you.
